

Things to Bring

Good Hunting Boots: Waterproof-Water resistant that you feel comfortable walking in...

Camouflage: Hat, Pants, Gloves, and Jacket for waterfowl hunting...you don't need waders, but you are more than welcome to bring them...

Raingear: Just in case a light Camo Jacket and Pants are the most versatile.

Your Gun: Unless you have made previous arrangements with the lodge...A 12 gauge that can take 2 ¾ to 3½ inch shells would be the most versatile ...Use this opportunity to go buy yourself a new Benelli Super Black Eagle!!

Upland game: Pants, Shirts, and Jacket that you can take off in layers once you start walking...Thin Shooting gloves are nice to have on those cooler days....

Slippers: so you can lounge around the lodge

Personal Toiletries and Medications: We have all the essentials of a great hotel...

Ear and Eye Protection: We have foam ear plugs ...If you need something other than that, please bring it...Make sure you have your prescription glasses ...I don't want to hear any excuses for missing!

Dogs: I have plenty, but if you would like to bring yours please make arrangements ahead of time so we can make them feel at home.

Swimming Trunks: It's great to take a hot Jacuzzi after a long day of hunting ...No "au natural"!
